“ Fascinating games for the youngest members of the family!

Games for Children

OVER THE YEARS, Games for Children has been one of the most popular categories for Tactic. Many of our games have been nominated for international game awards. Trivial, which was introduced last year, was nominated for the title of “The Best Game of the Year” in both Denmark and Norway, and I am, I do was nominated for the equivalent 2008 title in Finland.

This year, the category is expanded with several wonderful new additions. The focus has continued to be on creating innovative, educational and entertaining games for children of all ages. My First Game series with My First Picture Game and My First Trivia Game have been created for the youngest members of the family, whereas Captain Hook is an exciting adventure game for slightly older children. In addition, licensed games with a Cars 2 theme are introduced.
