Outdoor Games

THE WORLDWIDE POPULARITY of Outdoor Games is skyrocketing, thus Tactic is introducing a whopping total of seven new outdoor games this year! The aim has been to produce fun outdoor games without age or fitness restrictions – in other words, games suitable for everyone.

Mölkky is without doubt the heart of the Outdoor Games range. Most of the games are related to Mölkky in one way or another and the game has become a popular favourite throughout the world. Besides being the fastest selling outdoor game in Scandinavia, national tournaments are organised throughout the world. The worldwide sales of Mölkky game have been solely licensed to Tactic by its trademark owner.

What is noteworthy about the whole range is its ecological friendliness. Mölkky, for example, is made using wood from sustainable Finnish forests which have been awarded the PEFC certificate. No chemicals or toxins are used when producing these outdoor games – they are 100% natural.
