“ Fascinating games for the youngest members of the family!

GAMES FOR CHILDREN

OVER THE YEARS, Tactic has introduced many successful games for children. Our games have been applauded for being both educational and entertaining, and they have won multiple awards worldwide. In 2012, Tactic introduces several new games for children, all of which continue the classic tradition of social board games. Colourful Caterpillars is a charming board game, in which children learn colour recognition by matching the caterpillars with a right board colour. Hungry Monsters, on the other hand, is a game with a cool monster concept: while interacting with other players, players complete fun tasks and try to stuff their hungry monster's mouth with delicious food.

Richard Scarry's Busytown is an award-winning game that was introduced last year in Scandinavia. This year, a number of new games are released with the same beloved theme. Additionally, Where's the Cat? offers a fun memory game challenge and Let's Learn European Flags teaches preschoolers the flags and the location of the European countries in a fun, innovative way!

PARTY GAMES

DESIGNED WITH ADULTS IN MIND, Tactic's party games are entertaining, current and they encourage social interaction with other people. The games in this category are the perfect addition to any party or get-together, as they add fun content to social moments.

Men Vs. Women: The Game of Looks is an expansion of the hugely popular Men Vs. Women game, in which men and women playfully fight to see which sex is 'superior'. The Game of Looks is based on the idea that men and women perceive pictures differently, and it features colourful pictures that are sure to cause discussion and laughter among the players.

Say Anything, on the other hand, is a game in which players try to get inside the mind of the other players. The aim is to see how well you know the other players and see if you think alike – this is done by trying to think how a friend would answer a question. Skeletons in the Closet also plays on the idea of knowing your friends, but in this game, the idea is to rank specific things. Perhaps you think that moustache is a good thing – or totally pointless?

WHAT WOULD YOUR FRIENDS SAY?

Say Anything is a party game in which it pays to know your friends! In turns, each player is asked a question, but there's a twist: the other players will think how the player, whose turn it is, will answer. With a simple setup and game idea, Say Anything is a game that is easy to learn and fun to play. Just say anything and you may win the game!
