KALEVA: ANCIENT GAME FROM FINNISH FORESTS

The battle of our heroes dawned well before the world was born, when mythical Kaleva heroes fought each other in the far North. The battle for the dominance would be epic, utilising the powers of gods, mages, sages and deities, as well as the ancient protective power of the looped square symbol.

Kaleva is a strategic board game in which two players strive for victory aided by the powers of ancient Finnish heroes, gods and legends! Players battle each other trying to overcome the other player's protective spells. The winner is the player who is first able to move three game pieces into the opponent's magic shield.
